Morning 9:00-12:00	Leadership skills fully integrated We integrate skills like goal setting, communication skills, identifying needs of others, priorities, and effective action with all the activities. Using skills as a starting point helps students to apply learning outcomes not only during camp but also at school and in their daily lives while they finish with a Personal Action Plan.	Winter Survival & Snowshoe Hike While snowshoeing at high altitude, together with a mountain guide, learn how to plan expeditions and rescues, and practice a simulated rescue in the snow using avalanche transceivers. Students then get to build their very own snow shelter or igloo!	Team Leadership Challenges Some of our most renowned leadership challenges in teams, with evaluation and feedback after each game as preparation for the Personal Action Plans and outdoor activities.	Glacier Expedition An adventure where professional mountain guides help students safely navigate a glacier at high altitude. Students enjoy a wide range of activities while learning about the glaciers in the Swiss Alps.	Alpine Skiing Skiing with top instructors in small groups based on different skill levels to learn or improve skiing techniques.	Personal Action Plans Students reflect on what they've learned at camp and complete their Personal Action Plans. Winter Mountain Challenge Students navigate through the snowy forests as part of a competition between groups, facing various challenges!	Departures We will miss everyone! Time to say goodbye to this amazing group. Students can be picked-up from our campus or dropped-off at Geneva or Zürich Airport or train station during regular drop-off times - included in the fee. See you in summer 2024!

All outdoor activities are supervised and guided by certified local Swiss guides while the SILC Academy senior trainers facilitate the development of leadership skills throughout the winter camp. The programme has been developed in consultation with educational professionals and is based on the many years of leadership development experience that SILC Academy and its affiliates have been exposed to through all summer, winter, and school camps around the entire year. Disclaimer: The full programme stated above is subject to changes due to, for example, weather, planning, and availability. Activities can be replaced or the order of the activities may be altered as long as the focus of the camp remains on leadership. No rights can be derived from this overview.
